

build a perfect...

Living Room

Your new interior is a blank canvas. Here are its Picassos.

3

1. DESIGN

Start with a grand plan from interior designer Henry Johnson, left, Johnson Berman, 18 W. Hamilton Street, 410-752-2030. He's created lots of stunning high-end interiors and has the design awards to prove it.

2. CARPENTRY

Move a wall, put in hardwood floors, or opt for gorgeous crown moldings and wainscoating from Delbert Adams Construction Group, 1417 Clarkview Road, 410-583-7575. Adams, middle, and partner Taylor Classen, right, are known among their discerning clients for high-end remodeling, additions, and restoration done right.

3. LIGHTING

Turn the room on with striking lamps, chandeliers, and shades from Wilson Lighting & Interiors, 208 York Road, Towson, 410-823-0423, which is packed with hundreds of choices in style and price, has professional designers on staff to help you decide, and carries the right stuff to fix that favorite old fixture.

4. UPHOLSTERY

Find the perfect fabric to revive the chairs and sofas, then hand it over to Joseph Loiero Upholstering, 10768 York Road, Cockeysville, 410-666-9037, for a flawless job at a fair price.

1

2

4

5

5. PAINT AND FABRIC

Get colorful at Budeke's Paints, 2103 Greenspring Drive, Timonium, 410-560-1230, and four other locations, the fifth-generation company that offers quality paints and supplies, a savvy staff, and in-home design services.

6. ANTIQUES AND ACCESSORIES

Add something surprising to the space from designer Stiles Colwill's new Halcyon House Antiques, 11219 Greenspring Avenue, 410-828-8889, a very cool store boasting early 19th-century Baltimore furniture, Chinese exports, art, ceramics, and more.

6

